Some 130 persons attended the service which followed the theme "The Christian Church". A senior choir and children's choir furnished special anthem music.

The two protestant churches recently voted to merge, with services being held alternately in the Congregational and Methodist auditoriums until a special committee reports on plans for combining the

Walter Roberts May Coach Methuen Football

POLIO TARGET DATE IS MAY 1

Salk polio vaccine may be in use here by May 1.

That's the word from the board of health, after a check with the state department of public health. The local board met recently to discuss the program for inoculation of all students in grades one and two who return the parental consent slip. It was also indicated by the board that all doctors here will be contacted in regard to the inoculations by Dr. John J. McArdle Jr., school physician, and Dr. Philip W. Blake, board of health physician.

Present at the meeting were William V. Emmons, O.D., chairman; Charles O. McCullom, Ph.G., secretary; Dr. Philip W. Blake, Mrs. Lotta M. Johnson, R.N., agent of the board; Mrs. Ruth Westcott, school nurse, and Dr. McArdle.

Walter C. Roberts, football coach at Punchard from 1947 to June, 1952, may return to "Little Three" competition this fall.

Methuen School Supt. Ralph C. Sturke has confirmed reports that Roberts is interested in moving to the Methuen job, although the job pays less money than does Belmont, where Roberts now coaches.

Roberts was both football and baseball coach here, winning the "Little Three" championship twice. He is a N. Andover native and was a star on the Johnson football squad.

Later, he attended Holy Cross and played varsity football before entering the Navy. On discharge, he returned to Holy Cross and played football during his senior year. He was appointed teacher-coach here the September following his graduation.

Listen To Radio If Air Raid Sounds

Two simple rules to follow when an air raid alarm is heard have been set forth by the state director of civil defense, Col. John J. Maginnis.

If the alarm is heard, go to the nearest radio and find out whether the stations are carrying normal programs. If all stations are silent, there is an actual alert, for they will all be off the air for a few minutes following a general alert.

If the stations are carrying regular programs, there is no alert.

Conelrad, the civil defense emergency radio setup, will take the air at 640 and 1240 a few minutes after an actual alert is sounded.

MRS. ELIZA G. WINN

Shawsheen's Oldest Woman

On September 1, 1854, over a century ago, Mrs. Eliza G. Winn, was born in Corcoran, England.

As a young bride, she came to this country with her husband, and first saw the new world in Halifax, N.S. in St. Johns, N. B., her first child, a daughter, was born, following which the young family moved on to Lewiston, Me.

A few years later finds the family grown to four children and the new home - Lawrence. It is in this area that Mrs. Winn has spent the greater part of her life.

She has lived in this country for over 70 years, and been a living witness to floods, hurricanes, several lesser wars, and two world wars. She has seen 13 presidents take office, including one who was assassinated. She was also in the Springfield cyclone of '88.

One hundred years of miracles in the field of medicine, engineering, and science have taken place in her life-time.

Mrs. Winn attributes her longevity to the three fundamentals, hard work, good food, and proper rest, which created for her a happy, and healthy home life.

At the age of 96, Mrs. Winn was still leading a full and active life. But as her sight began to fail, it became increasingly difficult to maintain such a schedule. She has been in bed for the past six months due to a fall but is still very cheerful and keen of mind.

She lives with her daughter, Mrs. Percy Earnshaw of No. Main st., where she has lived for the past 18 years.

She has a son, Ernest Winn of Lawrence, and five great grandchildren and four grandchildren.

Den Mother Meeting

The den mothers of pack 71 will meet at the home of Mrs. Doris Schwartz, 50 York st., at 10 a.m., Monday, Apr. 25. Mrs. Dorothy Innes and Mrs. Shirley Holt will review their plans for the circus meeting to be held in May. All den mothers should plan to attend.

Shawsheen School Chapel

The Shawsheen school held its regular chapel program with grade three performing. The third grade teachers, Mrs. Marjorie Ganley and Mrs. Maureen O'Connell, prepared the material for the program which had as its theme, "Spring".

Paul Seccareccio announced the following children, who spoke on things they like and do in the spring: Scott Cardinal, My Bird Friends; Geraldine Winters, Song of the Lark; Patricia Gill, Pussy-willows; Joanne Blamire, In Springtime; Moira Prout, The Merry-go-round.

Sandra Borrelli, David Stickland and Jeffrey Barnes recited a piece entitled, How to Keep Healthy.

In observance of Patriots day, Barbara Ostrowe recited "The Concord Hymn" and the audience enjoyed a piano selection called, "Down the Street", played by Sebastian Cautaudella.

The children of the two grades combined in a chorus and sang several songs pertaining to Patriots day and the coming of spring.

This program is held every two weeks with a different grade per-

9-Year-Old Boy Killed At Dairy

A nine-year-old lad was killed Monday afternoon at the Colombos and Sons Creamery association on Argilla rd., in what police termed was an attempt to hop onto a rear step of a moving truck.

Sgt. William R. Hickey said he was of the opinion that John Mazmanian, 30 Chester st., Somerville, tried to jump onto the rear of the two and a half ton truck and either lost his balance or footing and was knocked down.

He identified John Colombosian, 26, 5 Argilla rd., as operator of the vehicle. Colombosian told investigators he heard a thump at the rear of the vehicle and stopped finding the boy on the ground at the front of the rear right wheel.

The fire department ambulance rushed the lad to the Lawrence General hospital, where he died three minutes after admittance.

Dr. John T. Batal, medical examiner, said the injuries were not consistent with the boy being run over, as was first theorized. He was of the opinion that the boy fell, stating that he had a fractured skull and extensive friction burns along the back and right hip.

Chief of Police David Nicoll said he is waiting for the medical examiner's report, a report from Sgt. Hickey and one from the registry of motor vehicles before deciding on a course of action.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following were treated in the Lawrence General hospital Saturday:

William Scanlon, 12, 95 Summer st., treated for a puncture wound in the sole of his foot inflicted by a piece of wire.

Charles Hurley, 17, 56 Bartlett st., was treated for a laceration of his right hand.

Lucien Topping, 46, 1 Cedar rd., was treated for an abrasion of the lower left leg.

Thomas Krook, 15, of San Francisco, Cal., a student at Phillips academy, was admitted to the Lawrence General hospital Monday for treatment of a fractured right ankle.

ROBERTS MAY GO TO METHUEN

The Methuen job will include teaching biology, general mathematics and perhaps a social studies course, Mr. Sturke said. He pointed out that Roberts, if he is eventually hired in Methuen, would apparently be making less money than he receives in Belmont. While Punchard coach, he received $4750 and was understood to have received considerably more when he went to the Belmont job.

Mr. Roberts was under consideration for the Punchard job a second time, following the resignation of Ed Doherty to take the Lawrence assignment. At that time, he received two votes and the present coach, Robert McIntyre received three.

Supt. Sturke said he has not yet received Robert's formal application although he has submitted a professional resume and has discussed the position over the telephone.

The Methuen school board failed to renew the contract of Dixie Sheehan this year as head coach.

The Methuen coaching job pays $700 a year. Sheehan, not a teacher, received only that amount. It is expected, Mr. Sturke said, that a new coach would receive either the $700 or possibly an additional amount, over the teaching salary. "I wouldn't think he (Roberts) would be interested, frankly," he declared.

History proves that any man with an idea is apt to be laughed at by people who have none.

Well Done, Dr. Salk

Our congratulations to Dr. Jonas E. Salk.

Now that dreaded disease, polio, will join the ranks of other once-terrifying diseases that have been controlled through preventative measures.

We hope never again will we hear the news of a polio outbreak, taking its toll of active youngsters. And it's almost a certainty that we will not see that happen again.

Much of the credit, of course, goes to the thousands and millions of warm-hearted Americans who gave so much in time and money to help the fight.

But to Dr. Salk must go the major credit — for he developed the serum and had the courage and faith in it to first inoculate his own family.

Dr. Salk must be a proud man — but he is no happier than a grateful citizenry who join with us in saying:

"Congratulations, Dr. Salk. Well done."

Williams Will Be A Memory

There are those in the land who moan over the missing Ted Williams.

And there are those, in somewhat of a minority, who feel that his absence from the Red Sox lineup this year may be a good thing.

And when members of these opposite camps get together, watch the tempers flare.

To whichever camp you belong, we feel that on one item we can all agree.

Williams was and is a colorful character who will be sorely missed by sports writers. For he never ceased to provide them with a story — even if it was one of criticism.

And he will be missed, as time goes on, by those who love to debate pro or anti Williams. For, as the season rolls along, there will be many who will forget the colorful fisherman; and other ball players will capture the imagination of the crowd.

Pretty soon other names will creep into the discussions, until Williams suddenly will be must a memory — perhaps provoking an occasional sharp discussion but soon becoming just another legendary character from the great American sport.

Certainly, while there may never be another Williams, there will always be guys in the game whose actions will be just as colorful in other ways and they are the ones who will be on the tongues of the fans as the season progresses.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — April 1905

Miss Celia A. Kydd spent the weekend with friends in Dover, N.H.

William Clark and Patrick Driscoll were appointed special policemen by selectmen this week.

On Wednesday Punchard will open its baseball season against Saugus. They play No. Andover Friday at the No. Andover field.

Tickets are on sale for a concert by the Harvard Glee, Mandolin and Banjo clubs in Town hall May 2.

The Myers farm in Scotland district has been sold to H. Bradford Lewis.

James Saunders, a local ballplayer, gave a creditable account of himself in a game between the Independents and the Wellingtons of Boston at Glen Forest last Wednesday.

All horses responded to a general alarm fire in the Osgood section about half a mile from the school. It was reported that a barn was burning. After a long, hard run of over four miles, firemen discovered that only brush and a lumber pile was afire. They made no effort to extinguish the blaze as it was nearly out but rested the horses well before returning to town. John Shaw owned the lumber.

Supt. Palmer will take the pupils of the ninth grade, accompanied by their teachers, on a sight seeing trip to Boston Apr. 29.

Punchard's ball team beat the alumni, 8 to 4, in a game Wednesday morning. The alumni team plainly showed a lack of practice and were faced by Capt. Moynihan, who struck out 17 and walked one.

Persons along the town streets were asked to stop filling the streets in with old tin cans, nails, bottles and the like by an irate citizen who owns an automobile. His complaint prompted editorial requests that the superintendent of streets try to have the habit stopped as it is not good for the tires.

A group of young ladies enjoyed a Brake Ride to Bald Pate Wednesday afternoon. They were taken there by Fred Higgins. The girls played baseball, danced and sang before enjoying a fine supper. They rode home under the light of a full moon.

25 Years Ago — April 1930

The Barnard prize for the best essay and delivery was given Miss Eleanor Barnard after the contest last evening. She was given $20. It was unusual for a sophomore to enter the contest as the juniors and seniors are required to enter but there is hardly ever any interest among others at the high school. Second prize was won by Senior Robert Abercrombie while third prize went to Miss Miriam Smith. They received $12 and $8 respectively.

The Alumni Players will present their second play, "The Mystery Man" Friday, Apr. 25, Mervin Stevens is coaching the group.

The Ladies Mission circle of the Baptist church will hold a food sale in the church vestry Apr. 25.

Private James Timothy, U.S. Army, is home on leave from duty with the 16th Signal Service at the Aberdeen Proving grounds.

Scout Francis Mooney was given four merit badges at a Troop meeting this week. He got them for work in carpentry, book binding, wood carving and angling. He belongs to Troop 7 at St. Augustines church.

The community-wide Easter egg hunt will be held Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Andover Guild. Any youngster under 12 may take part.

A committee on exhibits, part of the tercentenary committee, has arranged for open houses in some of the oldest houses here May 30 and 31. The celebration is under the sponsorship of the Historical society.

The Memorial Hall library will close Saturday all day, as it is the holiday.

The Andover Guild Players presented a three-act play "Nothing But the Truth" before a capacity audience last Friday in Town hall. There were some 200 students from the Academy present as well as many townspeople.

The Andover League of Women Voters entertained state officers and delegations from other Leagues Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Horace M. Poynter.

10 Years Ago — April 1945

Horns and whistles as well as the fire alarm — the usual air raid signal — will be sounded as the signal of VE Day by order of the selectmen. The horns will sound three blows of one minute duration each with two minute intervals.

A 25 percent wage increase was granted employees of the board of public works. It was a surprise move by the board when they met Monday night. Laborers and truck drivers will receive $85¢ an hour and foremen will get 95¢. Women employees will get $28 and $36 weekly.

The 10th annual free dog clinic will be held Saturday.

The clothing quota of 12,500 pounds was exceeded in last Saturday's drive. Although the clothing has not yet been weighed, a committee member announced the successful conclusion of the drive.

The Union Prayer service for the San Francisco peace conference will be held in the Andover Baptist church Tuesday evening.

Madden Retires; 32 Years As Fireman

One of Andover's veteran fire-fighters has retired.

He is Timothy Madden, a 32-year veteran on the department. During his service on the town department, Mr. Madden has seen many changes, including the growth from a five or six man department to the present 21-man size.

He participated in many of the big fires in this town, including the Hardy Brush factory fire and the fire that destroyed the Smith and Dove flux mill on Red Spring rd.

Mr. Madden was also the ambulance driver for many years, answering calls to emergencies of many types.

He is a native of N. Andover, but lived here all but one year of his life. He was educated in local schools and joined the department after discharge from the service following World War I.

He is married to the former Catherine Kennedy. The couple have three children, Edward, Margaret and Gertrude. The couple live now at 15 Elm st.

The Little League was $300 richer after this presentation was made Monday night from the Andover Police club. Patrolman Henry B. Smith is handing Winston Blake of the Little League the club's donation. (Townsmen Photo)
